

Eisenhower Remains Mum On Farm Bill Decision

State Republicans Disagree

Sales Tax Stamp Plan Sore Spot

HARRISBURG, April 13 (AP) — Republicans clashed among themselves today on whether the stamp plan for collecting the 3 per cent sales tax should be knocked out of the law.

The system, starting July 1, provides that retailers issue stamps to their customers as a receipt that the tax was paid.

Chairman Kessler (R-Lancaster) of the Senate Finance Committee said 8 to 10 million dollars could be saved if the stamp plan were eliminated.

Sen. Mahany, Republican floor leader, sided with Kessler and said it was "too costly and not too practical."

Favor

But from Miles Horst, Republican state chairman, came the statement that he favored the stamp plan advocated by Rep. Smith, House GOP floor leader and candidate for the Republican nomination for auditor general.

"The issue is very simple," said Horst. "With the stamp plan, the governor won't be able to make the sales tax a political football. Without it in the law, he can revive the sales tax vs. wage tax battle in the next session of the Legislature."

Kessler told a newsman, in advance of Horst's statement, that top business organizations in the Commonwealth are advocating removal of the stamp plan.

"I hope to confer with Smith on Monday in an effort to convince him that it would be best to remove the stamp plan from the law," the Republican senator told a newsman.

Discussion

A House-Senate Conference Committee is currently discussing amendments to the sales tax law which went into effect March 1.

Mahany said that a word from Smith could lay the groundwork for knocking out the stamp plan.

Under the stamp system, the state will sell stamps to banks who for a commission of one-half of 1 per cent will distribute them to retailers.

Retailers would get a 2 per cent commission for collecting the tax. A provision also is made for consumers to redeem the stamps with the state at 2 per cent of their face value.

Opponents of the stamp plan have contended 11 out of 30 sales tax states have tried it and rejected it with the exception of Ohio. Last week, Ohio officials complained that it was impractical.

Its backers claim that it tends to increase collections, reduces fraud and provides extra finances to charitable, fraternal and other groups who redeem them with the state.

Rep. Bower (R-Northumberland) said he believed House Republicans, led by Smith, would refuse to go along with any move to eliminate the stamp plan.

In another development, Kessler said he would favor boosting sales tax revenues by extending the levy to include telephone bills.

Democrats were reportedly sounding out GOP sentiment on this point.

Warren County Backs Meyner

BEDEVILERE, N. J., April 13 (AP) — A resolution endorsing a write-in presidential preference primary vote for Gov. Meyner was adopted tonight at a meeting of Democratic organizations of Warren County, Meyner's home county.

The resolution was applauded by 250 Democrats at the meeting and not withdrawn after Meyner appeared to say he was not a candidate in Tuesday's primary for any office other than that of delegate-at-large to the Democratic national convention.

Adenauer's Government Plans Bid To Russia

BONN, Germany, April 13 (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government plans a direct bid to Soviet Russia soon on behalf of German reunification, his foreign minister said today.

The West Germans say they fear otherwise the Big Four powers, again involved in disarmament talks may shelve the reunification issue indefinitely.

The foreign minister, Heinrich von Brentano, announced the government will "very soon take the initiative over German reunification through its ambassador in Moscow," Wilhelm Haas. He did not go into detail.

Indications Reveal Visit Of Hammarskjold Has Quieted Israeli-Egyptian Frontier

CAIRO, Egypt, April 13 (AP) — There were growing indications tonight that Dag Hammarskjold's peace mission here has quieted the Israeli-Egyptian frontier.

And a U. N. spokesman said the secretary general is making some progress toward keeping it calm.

Late tonight there had been no report of any border incident since Thursday afternoon.

Egypt is understood to have assured Hammarskjold all Arab commandos have withdrawn from Israel.

Israel charged the raiders had killed 14 and wounded 32 since Saturday.

Both sides handed Hammarskjold written assurances they would refrain from hostile acts.

An air battle yesterday and an exchange of fire across the frontier of the Gaza Strip followed the pledges. Then hostilities ceased.

New Charge

Israel charged there were two new Arab incidents today, but neither involved the frontier with Egypt. An Israeli spokesman said a child in the Jewish section of Jerusalem was wounded by a shot from the Arab-held quarter. Israeli workers also were reported

News Photographers To Be Barred From Grace's Wedding

MONTE CARLO, April 13 (AP) — Prince Rainier III decreed today that news photographers will be barred from his civil marriage to Grace Kelly in the throne room of his palace next week.

He apparently was provoked by what both he and Miss Kelly indicated they considered unmanly harassment by the cameramen when they drove to his sister's villa for lunch.

A communique announced that only the three official photographers will be permitted to record the civil ceremony on Wednesday.

STC Faculty Members Win Salary Raise

HARRISBURG, April 13 (AP) — Faculty members of Pennsylvania's 14 state teachers colleges have their minimum salaries boosted $500 a year under a new law signed today by Gov. Leader.

The law appropriates $100,000 and will apply to an estimated 800 professors, associate professors, assistant professors and instructors at the state teachers colleges.

The new minimums:

Totals
Professor with a doctor's degree $5,500; assistant professor with a master's degree $5,000; assistant professor with master's degree $4,500 and instructor with bachelor's degree $4,000.

Medical Bulletin Reports Riesel's Eyesight Fading

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP) — Labor columnist Victor Riesel's eyesight was reported fading tonight. The next several days may determine whether he will be totally blind.

"There were, regrettably, signs of regression in Mr. Riesel's ability to distinguish bedside visitors," said a medical bulletin issued tonight at St. Clare's Hospital.

Thug

An unknown thug tossed sulphuric acid in Riesel's eyes early on the morning of April 5. The 41-year-old nationally syndicated newspaper columnist had just left Lindy's restaurant on Broadway. Riesel blamed the assault on his newspaper and radio criticism of racketeers in union labor ranks.

Four Ships Assigned

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP) — The Navy said today that a division of destroyers—four ships—is being sent to the Mediterranean—but a spokesman denied that the move is in connection with international tension in the Mideast.

Margaret On Pink Cloud

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP) — Margaret Truman left by pink cloud and railroad tonight for Independence, Mo., where she will wed newspaperman Clifton Daniel April 21.

"You mean you can't see this pink cloud I'm walking around on?" she asked, with a fond look at her fiancé.

He argued that, unless Germany is reunited, a major cause of world tension will remain.

The West Germans have recently made it clear they resent having been so long mere spectators on the sidelines of a series of international parleys that have brought their dream of national unity no nearer.

Evidently Adenauer's government is now adopting a "do it yourself" policy. It is launching a diplomatic offensive to keep the German problem in the No. 1 spot on the East-West agenda.

Besides the approach to Moscow, Adenauer is going to the United States in June to urge President Eisenhower to put a new spark in the drive for German unity.

U. N. Secretary Asks Assurance From Israel

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., April 13 (AP) — For the second time in three days U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold today asked Israel for assurances that her forces have been forbidden to fire across Egypt's border.

This was Hammarskjold's reply to a demand from Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion for Hammarskjold to obtain such assurances from Egypt. Hammarskjold reminded Ben-Gurion he had asked for such Israeli assurance, had not received them, and that Egypt has promised to comply fully.

This was disclosed in a series of letters Hammarskjold sent here for circulation to the Security Council.

Fast Pace

Hammarskjold continued the fast pace he set when he departed last Friday from U. N. headquarters on a peace mission ordered by the Security Council. The tense Egyptian-Israeli frontier was calm but uneasiness was in the air. Hammarskjold will conclude his talks in Cairo tomorrow and expects to see Ben-Gurion next Tuesday.

Secretary of State Dulles visited New York on personal business and chatted with U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., president of the Security Council this month. A delegation source said it was possible they discussed the Middle East but pointed out this was not unusual since they confer each day by telephone.

Dulles would not comment on a report that the U. N. Security Council might meet abroad, possibly in Rome, on the Middle East situation.

Invade Home

In New York, 22 youngsters who said they were members of Brith Trumpeldor of America invaded the Park Ave. home of the Egyptian consulate and U. N. delegation. They chanted and prayed for an hour. They called it a memorial service for the three children and a rabbi "murdered by Egyptian killers near Tel Aviv on Wednesday."

The youngsters said the organization is the leading anti-Communist group for Jewish youth.

Ben-Gurion complained to Hammarskjold yesterday against the raid on the children and the appearance of Egyptian jet planes over Israeli territory. Ben-Gurion said it was clear that Egyptian acts of hostility are continuing.

He asked what assurances Hammarskjold had received from Egypt's Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser that orders had been issued to all Egyptian forces to maintain a complete cease-fire, not to cross the armistice line, to put an end to the activities of sabotage and "murder gangs" and to refrain from all other acts of aggression and violence.

Hammarskjold in his letter to Ben-Gurion, released here after it was transmitted to Ben-Gurion and to the Security Council, said Ben-Gurion must be aware that in negotiations of this kind the U. N. must take the word of the government as binding.

Gruenther To Quit As Allied Force Commander In Germany

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 13 (AP) — U. S. Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther's retirement by the year's end as supreme commander of Allied forces in Europe was announced today by President Eisenhower.

To succeed Gruenther—who asked to be relieved—Eisenhower chose American Gen. Lauris Norstad, a brilliant strategist and the first Air Force officer ever picked for the top NATO military post.

Nomination of Norstad, 49, now air deputy to Gruenther, was ratified promptly in Paris by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council.

Leaving Army

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said at Eisenhower's Augusta vacation headquarters the 57-year-old Gruenther—a close personal friend of the President—is retiring from the Army and as commander-in-chief in Europe "because of personal reasons." He did not elaborate.

In Paris, Gruenther told a press conference he had no personal plans, no other arrangement for employment in mind and "no ulterior motive" behind his resignation. He said he was stepping out to make way for younger men and new ideas.

Three years, he said, is about the maximum for a supreme Allied commander in order to maintain the viability of the alliance and to give opportunity to younger officers.

Gruenther added he is not retiring for reasons of health. Last December he underwent what was described at the time as minor surgery at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington. When he left the hospital he was Eisenhower's guest for a few days in Key West, Fla., where the President was convalescing from his heart attack.

Hagerty said Gruenther—like Norstad, a brilliant planner and strategist—will leave "toward the end of this year." The press secretary added that Norstad probably will take over at that time.

Medical Advisors Issue Salk Report

FRANKFURT, Germany, April 13 (AP) — Seven West German government medical advisers say American and German children inoculated with Salk antipolio vaccine or a German serum may have been turned into spreaders of polio.

The statement was contained in a report in a medical journal yesterday. Communists promptly picked it up for use as anti-American propaganda.

Maj. Gen. Harry G. Armstrong, chief surgeon of the U. S. Air Forces in Europe, and Maj. Gen. Alvin L. Gorbey, surgeon general of the U. S. Army's European command, challenged the report today.

Third Blast Victim Found

PHILADELPHIA, April 13 (AP) — Sixteen days after the devastating blast at the granary of the Tidewater Mill and Grain Co. the body of a third victim was recovered today from the debris.

The body was that of Edward Johnson, 39, a laborer from Philadelphia. The bodies of two other victims were found shortly after the March 28 blast which caused widespread damage in Philadelphia's busy 30th and Market Street section.

A LARGE CROWD of interested anglers gathered at the state highway shed near Bartonville to witness the arrival of six more tank trucks carrying close to 12,000 trout. The fish later were put into Broadheads Creek under the supervision of Fish Warden Floyd Bachman (in uniform). All told, almost 40,000 trout have been released in 19 Monroe County streams during the State Fish Commission's pre-season stocking program. In case you didn't know, trout season begins at 5 a.m. tomorrow. (Staff Photo by MacLeod)

39,788 New Trout Stocked For Opening Of Season

A TOTAL 39,788 trout were put into 19 Monroe County streams during the pre-season stocking program, State Fish Warden Floyd Bachman reported last night.

Bachman indicated that this represents about 16 percent more than the number placed into county streams before the start of the 1955 season. And the fish warden anticipated that this increase will be reflected in future stockings this year.

Of the total, 16,356 brown trout were put into county streams this year, Bachman said. There were also 13,920 brook trout and 9,512 rainbows.

Yesterday

Close to 12,000 trout were dumped into the Broadheads Creek yesterday, he said. And more trout are expected to arrive here early next week for stocking McMichael's Creek.

Meanwhile, William Voigt Jr., the Fish Commission's executive director, reported a record stocking of trout throughout the state this year.

Ike Proposes Increase In Immigration

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell said today that President Eisenhower proposes a "limited" increase in the number of immigrants. He refused to concede that the number would be doubled.

Brownell, appearing before a Senate Judiciary subcommittee, also objected to a suggestion that under Eisenhower's proposals the "cultural pattern" of immigration would be shifted to southeastern Europe.

Brownell said he did not like the term "cultural pattern" or know just what subcommittee counsel Richard Arens meant by it.

Committee

The attorney general went before the subcommittee to back up Eisenhower's Feb. 8 recommendation for revising the controversial McCarran-Walter Immigration Act. Eisenhower asked for a 64,804 increase in the annual immigration quota, now set at 154,657. He also proposed a limited arrangement for reallocating unused quotas.

Arens asked if the proposed increase, plus the pooling of unused quotas, would not have the practical effect of doubling the number of quota immigrants now entering this country each year.

Transit Strike Complete

MILWAUKEE, April 13 (AP) — Milwaukee's transit strike rounded out its first day today. The most noticeable effects were a marked reduction in retail trade and less spare time for traffic officers who had to cope with 200,000 bus riders who had to find some other kind of transportation.

Four Killed In Plane Crash

EAGLES MERE, Pa., April 13 (AP) — A private plane crashed in a woodland during a snow squall today, killing the four occupants.

The victims were identified as Edward A. Hausman Jr., the pilot, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Edward A. Herre Jr., vice president of Herre Brothers, Inc., plumbing and heating firm, also Harrisburg; H. G. Simpson, air conditioning equipment dealer from Gettysburg, Pa.; and Don J. Parr Jr., of Lebanon, Pa., real estate salesman.

Four Prisoners Caught

JACKSON, Tenn., April 13 (AP) — Police Chief Robert Maynard reported the capture today of four men who admitted escaping from the York, Pa., jail Tuesday.

May Address Nation On Final Action

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 13 (AP) — President Eisenhower, mum on reports he has decided to veto the farm bill, may make a nationwide TV-radio address next week to explain whatever action he takes.

As the President awaited the arrival of Secretary of Agriculture Benson for a conference tomorrow on the controversial election year bill, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower is thinking about going to the American people on the politically hot issue.

Hagerty cautioned newsmen against concluding that consideration of Eisenhower is giving to the idea of a TV-radio talk means necessarily that the President already has made up his mind to veto the bill, which he has called unwelcome.

Explanation

He said Eisenhower may go on the air "whatever action he takes" — whether he signs or vetoes the measure which Congress approved despite vigorous administration objections to certain major provisions.

Reports persisted that Eisenhower will announce a veto when he returns to Washington next week from a working Augusta vacation but Hagerty refused to discuss the reports.

Hagerty said a decision regarding an Eisenhower TV-radio talk "quite probably" will be made at the President's conference tomorrow with Benson.

The agriculture secretary, who also has sharply criticized the farm bill, will be joined at the session by a team of administration aides from Washington.

Key Democrats in Congress have said Eisenhower must sign the bill or get no farm legislation this year. No matter what the outcome, the issue is sure to be a major one in this year's presidential and congressional election campaigns.

Saratoga Ready For Regular Duty

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP) — America's new queen of fighting ships, the attack carrier USS Saratoga, is ready for duty.

She'll be commissioned tomorrow with traditional Navy pomp and ceremony.

The 60,000-ton craft, the biggest and most powerful ever built, is the Navy's second of the carrier USS Forrestal class.

But the new vessel, a push-button mammoth of power and split-second efficiency, is slightly longer, swifter and driven by stronger engines.

Block Wide

From her waterline to the tops of her mast she stands higher than Niagara Falls. She is about a city block wide and about five blocks in length. She's fitted with new devices—from her sound-proof hangars to her fast-moving electric stairs.

She'll carry about 100 planes, and her steam-powered catapults can put four of them in the air in 60 seconds.

Government dignitaries, including Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas, will be on hand when the new warship is placed in service—while bands play, flags go up, and jet planes thunder above the gleaming, four-acre flight deck.

The shipboard ceremonies will be alongside a pier at Brooklyn's naval shipyard, where the vessel years of work from four miles of blueprints.

Duff Warns Republicans

PITTSBURGH, April 13 (AP) — U. S. Sen. Duff, Republican seeking re-nomination, said today the GOP must "snap out of its lethargy" or face defeat next fall.

The junior Pennsylvania senator attended a luncheon and reception sponsored by the Allegheny County Republican Committee for organization of statewide and local candidates.

Death Of Allentown Man Takes New Twist

BALTIMORE, April 14 (AP) — Gregory M. Dell-Pizzi, 25, a medical student, has since married the night club dancer over whom he had a fist fight which resulted in the death of another man, it was disclosed in court today.

The crew-cut University of Maryland student from Weirton, W. Va., was ordered held for the grand jury and released under $10,000 bail.

He was charged originally with assaulting and punching Richard Marlowe Wick, 52, a metallurgist, of Allentown, Pa. That was the morning of Feb. 16 in the lobby of the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Wick, who was here on business at the Bethlehem Steel Co., died two days later.

Arraigned

The medical student was arraigned today on charges of assault and striking and causing the death of Wick.

Magistrate Meyer Cardin held Dell-Pizzi for the grand jury after a hearing at which the state contended it was "in a box" because the defendant had since married the entertainer over whom he fought.

The girl, known professionally as Jeanne Winters and whose real name is Charlotte Holland, 27, had been on bail as a state witness. But Francis J. Meagher, assistant state's attorney, was reluctant to have her testify upon learning of the marriage. He also pointed out a wife cannot be required to testify against her husband.

The tall and slender entertainer from Huntington, W. Va., agreed to be heard after the magistrate insisted that she be called.

Berean Church Holds 'S' Day To Launch Project Session

LAST SUNDAY WAS AN "S" day at the Berean M.B.E. Church in Stroudsburg. It was Silver Dollar Day. Pastor Donald B. Schaeffer and Miss Helen Hale, Sunday School superintendent, touched off a 60 day program of practical stewardship for the Lord by giving to many willing participants a shining silver dollar.

The object of the gift in trust, was to see to what amount each participant could make that dollar grow for the Lord. There were many novel projects and enterprises in which the many young and old prospective investors for the Lord were ready to embark on.

Projects

Some of these were sewing, art work, handiwork of all kinds, candy making, baked goods, sale of wood cut to convenient lengths, baby sitting, etc. One young girl of the Sunday School, Carol Copenhaver, of Shawnee, plans to sell paintings she made and raise a little pig she wants to sell. Another plans to make frames for pictures with more deciding on their projects as time goes on.

So if you see Silver Dollars in circulation again around the Stroudsburg it's the Lord's money on its way to grow so that its stewards may help buy new chairs and furnishings for the recently remodeled basement of the church. The work has been done by the men of the church in order to expand the Sunday School facilities.

Three awards, first, second and third achievement awards will be made at the close of the project.

deacons to care for the poor and sick and distribute among them the collections which may be raised for their use.

Meeting

The combined Shawnee, Middle Smithfield Westminster Fellowship will meet at Middle Smithfield at 7 p.m. under the direction of Zandee Wicks, president. The program for the evening is entitled, "I've Got A Secret."

Rev. Newquist To Make Challenge

REV. DAVID C. Newquist will challenge the newly ordained deacons as he preaches on the topic, "God's Power For Service," taken from the prophet Joshua's message to his people. Those to be ordained as deacons during the morning worship will be Mrs. Omar Michaels and Mr. Abram Kulp.

St. John's Lutheran Lists Services

SECOND Sunday after Easter will be observed at services tomorrow in St. John's Lutheran Church, Stroudsburg. Pastor, Rev. P. N. Wolschen, D. D., will preach on "Christ Knows You" based upon the Gospel narrative of the Good Shepherd.

Music will be furnished by the senior choir. Altar flowers will be placed by Frank E. Miller as a memorial to his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller Erich Stabenow will serve as acolyte for the service and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Munson will have charge of the nursery for pre-school age children at 10:50 a.m.

A. E. Kitzman, Warren Mikes, Frederick Dent and Richard Frenenberg will serve as ushers.

Vespers

At the vespers at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Wolschen will speak on "Do you know Christ?" which is a corollary to the morning sermon. This service will be preceded by a hymn sing and music will be furnished by the chancel choir.

Carl Yost will serve as acolyte and James Hantjies, Elston Arnt, Edward Wagner and Elton Wagner will serve as ushers.

Sessions of the Church School and Bible classes will be held at 9:45 a.m. Pastor announced that the chapel choir from Muhlenberg College will present a program of sacred church music on Sunday, April 22, at 7:30 p.m. Forty young men under the direction of Dr. Leibel compose this musical organization.

Times Set For Events

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

“ LIKE FATHER— LIKE SON ”

Something's in the making here. Maybe it's a garden. Maybe it's nothing more than a ditch. But what really counts is that father and son are working together happily.

Sonny may be more hindrance than help just now. But, says Dad patiently, "How ever will the boy learn if he doesn't do?"

When you watch, with ebbing patience your child's fumbling efforts to imitate yours, do you ever think about your heavenly Father's patience with you when you are in the wrong?

He's right there, working alongside you too, wanting to show you how to carry on, and staying close by in case you get into trouble.

If you keep in touch with Him through prayer and regular church attendance, you will learn from Him how to live, just as your child learns from you through talking and being with you.

Award Of School Construction Contract Presents Ticklish Problem For Officials

The Building Trades Council has posed a thorny problem for the Stroud Union School Board and Authority.

As stated by Ralph Paul, representative of the union body, "If an injunction is granted against picketing, the men have taken the position they will not work with non-union men."

He was referring to a school board recommendation that the authority award contracts for the new school-building program to "lowest responsible bidders."

Low bid for the electrical contract was submitted by William A. Donmoyer, Allentown. The Building Trades Council reported that Donmoyer employs non-union labor.

The problem presented is a two-pronged one, with obvious merits on both sides.

Under Sections 751 and 752 of the Pennsylvania School Code, all contracts must be awarded to the "lowest responsible bidders" who "agree to pay not less than such rates of wages for such hours' work as shall be established and current rates of wages paid for such hours by employers of organized labor in doing of similar work in the district where the work is being done."

By law, therefore, school boards are required to follow a rigid pattern.

Arguments presented by labor representatives are based, in part, on different systems of rating workmen practiced by union and non-union contractors. The thought is that a non-union employer could hire two skilled workers and four helpers to do a job that would require the services of four skilled men and only two apprentices under union rules.

The non-union contractor would thus gain the advantage, labor spokesmen contend, because he pays the journeyman a higher wage than the helper. This argument is presented to show how the non-union employer is able to underbid the union contractor.

The situation is not an easy one to resolve to the satisfaction of everyone. But it must be settled even if it means that both sides must find a way to compromise the issue. Nothing should stand in the way of getting work started on the much needed schools, and once construction has begun, there should be no interruptions due to labor disputes.

Many Weighty Problems Disappear; It Must Be That Time Of The Year

Subject: Problems facing the American public this Spring.

Inquiring reporter: "Sir, what do you think of the situation in the Middle East?"

Mr. Fischer: "The situation calls for a broad crust fly in the early part of the season. Or a light Cahill, evolving later on to a Royal Coachman."

I. R.: "Thank you, Sir, but that's not the answer I was looking for."

Mr. F.: "Well, if you don't agree with me, use worms."

I. R. (to woman): "Madam, may I ask you . . . ?"

Woman: "Please don't bother me now. I'm trying out my new stream hat for the opening of trout season tomorrow."

I. R. (mumbling to himself): "These crazy people."

I. R. (approaching another woman): "Excuse me, Madam, would you care to comment on developments concerning the Reds?"

Miss Diamond: "I'm not interested in the Reds. All I'm worried about is will I have to go to Jersey City to see the Dodgers play this year?"

I. R. (to himself): "I might have expected this on Friday the 13th."

George Sokolsky Says . . .

Emphasis Put On Women's Measurements Is Branded Sign Of Decaying Civilization

Something new has come into the world. It reminds me of the Circassian slave markets where men bid for concubines and harlots after examining the chattel. This new thing is a set of three figures which appears in news stories and which apparently are the physical measurements of women.

I do not quite know how the reporters go about getting such measurements, as I have only been in this business 39 years and have never measured a woman. Maybe they carry tapes with them and whenever they see a woman, they fall upon her measuring her various places for size. Or perhaps they interview her on the subject, asking politely, "Can you tell me what your size is around the hips and including your thighs?" Or perhaps the modest female employs a press agent who has her measurements all neatly printed on a calling card.

I am surprised that no one gives ankle-measurements; the length of the legs; the over-all weight and similar data. Perhaps that will come some day when we reach the point when somebody will set up a bargain counter for the purchase of women to do stripteases or for some other occupation where measurements are interesting.

Believe me, I am not a prude. I have lived in parts of the world where men and women wear as little clothes as possible because it is hot. I have seen millions of women suckle their babies at organs of immense dimensions. There was something beautiful and natural about that. This new and current obsession with a girl's measurements, put into a news story, seems to me to be vulgar, even degenerate and a mark of a decaying civilization.

It is necessary to give some thought to this because history is replete with the story of nations that once were great and that collapsed because the morals of the race ceased to control the lives of the people. No nation has had a longer continuous existence as a state than China; yet the last century of China's history has been a tale of degeneration due to the degeneration of the people by opium, the heavy weight of plural marriage and the corruption of officials which developed into a system of administration. China collapsed not in 1949 when Chiang Kai-shek fled to Formosa but in the 1850's and 1860's, after the ravages of the Taiping and other rebellions. A nation cannot stand firm when any considerable part of its population becomes degenerate.

These measurement figures in news stories, excluding all concepts of both modesty and privacy, must be taken as symptomatic of an era when the bars are let down. Sir Harold Nicolson has just published a book, "Good Behaviour," which deals with the varieties of good manners in various periods from ancient times to the present and no matter how you look at it, manners are the expression of morals in action. When manners disappear, it must mean that morals have become so weakened that social pressures do not exert much, if any, influence upon those who are not self-restrained but require some external influence to keep them in bounds. Surely, it cannot be good manners, even if no immoralities are involved, to discuss a woman's measurements—the bust, the waistline and the hips—as though she were a horse.

These are all little things, but they are the weathervanes which establish which way the storm is moving. It is so curious that at a time when Soviet Russia has gone puritanical in self-defense against the weakening of its people, we, in a country founded by puritans and pilgrims, have lost our bearings.

It is possible to over-emphasize politeness, to attribute all our advantages and all our woes to political action. It is as much an error to devote our thinking exclusively to a political interpretation of events as to an economic interpretation of the course of history. There are other forces and currents that move men, some even imperceptible and subconscious. Certainly, the moral bars for life in any country is important in any analysis of the life of the people of that country. And the manners of men and women give a clue to what they regard as important. Surely, it cannot be good manners to write about a young lady—

"Jane Smith, 28, 36-22-34, opened last night in the Last Hope Restaurant."

Christmas. The little girl got her doll, and when it arrived "it was washed with the mother's tears." "The doll's face." This doll was passed on, and made other little girls happy.

Another thing about this man which I never stop admiring is, whether you're rich or poor, little or big, he stops says hello, that other man would you find doing this, being the owner of the store, you'd have to be interviewed by four or five secretaries, and then maybe you'd get in to see him, mostly not. And at times he has a pocket full of candy or trinkets for kiddies to take their choice.

And his employees, he never raises his voice to them, in passing, something must have gone wrong, and I heard him say, "It didn't work, did it, we'll have to try something different next time," and a lift to that corner of his mouth that seems to always smile.

And when he goes to visit places whether it's far or near, it seems, he enjoyed it so much, that he tries to share the beauty he has seen, with the less fortunate ones, that didn't get to see it. And the way he describes the flowers, it seems I have to close my eyes, and I can almost touch them.

So in closing if you haven't guessed who I've been talking about. Well it's our own Mr. Ernest Wyckoff. May God bless him, and keep him as sweet as he's always been.

AN ADMIRER.

Heavenly Memories Live From Old Chautauqua Days

Down at the railroad station, baskets of peaches waited along the freight platform for the morning train. The mail pouch hung on its pole to be caught up by the "fast" train which didn't stop at Spencer. There were a lot of fast ones that never stopped.

The sand was hot under the feet of children's black patent leather shoes, and some of its alitered grittily through the openwork vamps onto pastel socks. They sat down carefully on a grassy spot by the path so as not to soil their best clothes, shading the sand out of the hot black shoes, buckling them quickly so as not to be left too far behind the others.

It was the day of Chautauqua. The tremendous tent was already in place and men were setting up rows of folding chairs. There was a real stage, with red curtains, and the upright piano from chupp had been moved down front. The children consciously counted down the rows of chairs to find where they would sit that night.

There would be cousins and uncles and aunts and—well, everybody in town. All fluttering in white lawn dresses, tucked and pleated and inset with lace panels. And the men would wear clean white shirts—without jackets, of course. Too hot for coats that August night.

And there would be music from the local band. At four that afternoon was the regular band concert in the white latticed, octagon pagoda halfway to town. People would stand on the sidewalk, or in clusters under the band stand if they weren't wearing white canvas shoes. This street had unfortunately been oiled too recently for wearing white shoes, and some of the ladies regretted it rather openly. But without rancor. The long summer afternoon seemed to have all the time in the world for music and laughter and children eating strawberry ice cream cones and just people having a good time together. Fried chickens were mounded in white crocks covered with clean dish towels, on the kitchen tables. Angel food and devil's food and ribbon and marble cakes had been baked. And thick home-made bread-and-butter sandwiches sliced and ready.

After the concert, this simple supper would be eaten picnic style so Mother could brush up the children, see that Grandma had her cane, that Dad had the tickets—in time to go Chautauqua.

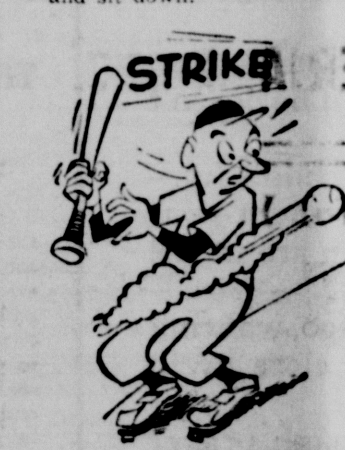

There isn't anyone left nowadays who will actually vouch for the quality of those Chautauqua performances. There isn't a soul who would take oath that they topped any entertainment we have now. —But oh, it was wonderful, divine, enchanting. An artist made real pictures before our eyes, with real oil paint. The tenor from the East sang so loud and sweet. And the finale, that creme de la creme, was a play called "Come Out of the Kitchen." Such beauty and grace had the actresses. Such elan and magnetism, the actors. They even had a lady-artist—and whoever saw or heard of such a thing!

That was Chautauqua. That was the glimpse of worldly doings and a fragment of what Heaven must be like. Chautauqua on a summer evening long ago.

Try and Stop Me

—by Bennet Cerf

Big league pitchers rarely know how to hit, although occasionally a Don Newcombe or Red Ruffing prove exceptions to the rule. Most pitchers take their feeble and futile three swipes or looks at the ball—and sit down.

One of the worst batters in baseball history was the Yankees' celebrated relief artist, Wilkey Moore. In fact, Babe Ruth once bet him $300 to $100 he wouldn't make three hits in an entire season. Wilkey fooled everybody—the Babe most of all—by pounding out five singles that year for an average of about .008. Ruth, of course, had to fork over the $200.

Moore added insult to injury by buying two mules with the money. He named one "Babe," the other "Ruth."

The night Gina Lollobrigida was the mystery guest on "What's My Line," Panel Moderator John Daly observed appreciatively, "There's one Roman who wasn't built in a day!"

Three Unhappy Alternatives Face U. S. In Middle East

Washington, April 13: "Three unhappy alternatives" are actually what Secretary Dulles discussed with congressional leaders at that secrecy-cloaked conference on the imminent menace of war in the inflamed Middle East.

The State Department head personally applied the gloomy description to these unannounced measures, which he outlined as follows:

Offer a new resolution in the United Nations for the intervention of a joint military force adequate to maintain peace between the Arabs and Israel. This move in the UN would be coupled with a request for congressional approval to use U.S. troops for this purpose.

Join the Baghdad alliance, which Britain has been vigorously urging for months.

Provide Israel with the jet planes and other arms it has been seeking from the U.S. since last fall.

Dulles made no attempt to minimize the gravity of this ominous crisis. He solemnly told the congressional leaders, "From the latest reports we have received from our ambassadors there, I fear the time may have passed for a peaceful solution."

Yet, Dulles gave no indication that immediate action is contemplated on the three proposals.

He stressed that each of them presents "serious pitfalls which must be carefully weighed before we proceed." Foremost among them he listed the following:

"A request for UN military intervention would run into violent Arab opposition, supported by the Soviet bloc and the neutral nations. That powerful combination would do everything possible to stall such action, and its peaceful effect might well be destroyed by this deliberate delay."

"Joining the Baghdad Pact would only result in further driving Egypt into Soviet hands. We heartily approve of the Pact and are doing our utmost to support it, but we doubt the wisdom of joining it at this time, unless we have to."

"Giving Israel the weapons it wants would at best be only a temporary solution. An arms race is not the answer for averting war in the Middle East."

Dulles admitted the existence of sharp differences with Britain over what should be done. But he didn't dwell on them, or on how they are affecting the policies of the two countries.

What's Behind It—Under questioning, Secretary Dulles stated U.S. policy in the Middle East is based on two key factors: (1) Retention of the immense oil resources of the region for the military and economic use of Western Europe; (2) preservation of Israel as a nation.

"I don't have to tell you," Dulles added, "that these two basic policies are now in conflict because of Russia's sale of arms to the Arab countries."

House Democratic Floor Leader John McCormack, Mass., raised another point.

"Which of these two policies comes first?" he demanded. "Is saving Israel the first, or keeping hold of the oil?"

"We are trying to do both," replied Dulles. "But it must be kept in mind that saving the oil for Western Europe means saving Western Europe from the Communists. That is what it gets down to."

Dulles was asked why the number of UN truce observers is not increased.

"President Eisenhower suggested that to General Burns," answered Dulles, "but he rejected it."

"On what grounds?" demanded McCormack. "Is he a sovereign in his own right? Where does Burns get the authority to reject a recommendation of the President of the United States?"

Dulles explained, "General Burns operates under UN authority. We can't tell him to do anything. All we or any other country can do is to suggest."

Senate Republican Leader William Knowland, Calif., inquired the reason for Dulles' pessimism about averting war.

"Neither side is talking about peaceful solutions any more, explained Dulles. 'Premier Nasser and Premier Ben-Gurion are now taking the position that the possibility of a peaceful solution is out of the question. Three incidents have enormously intensified the tensions. The first was an Egyptian raid in which an Israeli civilian was killed. Israel retaliated with a raid in which 40 Egyptians were killed and 102 wounded."

"That caused Nasser to personally order his commandos to attack Israel. General Burns got wind of this and asked Nasser to recall these commandos. Nasser replied he couldn't do that because the commandos were out of radio contact and couldn't be reached. They were on suicide missions and beyond recall."

Dulles also told the congressional leaders about a disquieting report from Russia.

He stated Intelligence sources have ascertained that "Moslem volunteers are being organized in Russia to join the Arabs. According to this authoritative information, Egyptian pilots and other officers being trained by the Reds are used for recruiting these Soviet 'volunteers.'"

Members Of Record Staff In Book

By Jim Riley

Roberta "Bobby" Westbrook, social editor of The Daily Record, and Leonard "Randy" Randolph, reporter for the same paper, were mentioned in the most recent book written by David Dempsey. The publication is entitled "Flood" and deals with last August's flood in Pennsylvania. New York and Connecticut.

Work of the two local newspaper personalities is also mentioned briefly in the book.

The Pocono Township Parent and Teachers Association is most fortunate to have a president like Dick Post. The association undoubtedly realizes this fact as it unanimously reelected Post to the position during Wednesday night's "Open House" meeting.

Dick, a graduate of Pocono High School, is keenly interested in the youth of the area and is one of the big boosters of the Tannersville Little League team. He is keenly interested in PTA work and gives all of his free time to the project.

Mrs. Walter Dreher, Mrs. John Rumsey and Mrs. Helen Webb represented the Crippled Children and Adult Division of Monroe County at the semi-annual Orthopedic Clinic held at the Monroe County General Hospital this week.

Mrs. Marion Field, state nurse in Monroe County, led a list of nurses that included Agnes Bettinger, Elizabeth Howitt, Sophie Pedgorsky, Ruth Reinhold, Adele McCullough and Leona Nealis.

Helen Kupiszewski, state health department clerk, also assisted at the clinic.

Harry Warner, a resident of Reders and one of the best athletes ever produced by Pocono High School, recently slammed three homers, a triple and single and drove in 11 runs as Austin, of the "AA" Texas League hammered El Paso, of the class "B" Big State League, 22-11, in an exhibition contest. Warner is currently holding down first base for Austin.

The Tannersville Little League baseball team is searching for a building to be used as a combination concession stand and equipment room. The adults backing the Tannersville Little League venture will handle the details of transporting said building.

Three East Stroudsburg Residents Injured In Accident

Car, Trailer Demolished At Tallahassee

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—An East Stroudsburg couple and their eight-year-old son were seriously hurt here yesterday when their car and house trailer were involved in a collision with another vehicle.

Admitted to Tallahassee Hospital after the crash were Mrs. and Mrs. Eugene Felleener and their son, David. Their car and 41-foot trailer were completely destroyed by fire following the collision.

Most Seriously
Felleener, 32, son of Mrs. Charles H. Frailey, of Franklin Hill, was the most seriously injured. He suffered a broken jaw and injuries to the head, face, an ankle and both knees. His wife, Lorraine, 27, received a fractured skull, while David suffered abrasions to the head and face and a broken leg. The names of the parents reportedly were taken off the critical list last night.

The Felleeners reportedly left East Stroudsburg last fall to spend the winter in Orlando. They were on their way to Joliet, Ill., when the mishap occurred.

The Felleener car collided with another automobile near Bainbridge during a rainstorm. Passengers in the other car, Henry Trot, 63, and his 85-year-old mother, of Tucson, Ariz., were killed.

Last Chance To File Taxes

FINAL warning that all individual income tax returns must be in the Director's office not later than Monday, April 16, or postmarked not later than midnight of that day was issued by F. P. Graham, District Director of the Scranton Internal Revenue District.

Taxpayers are subject to penalties for filing tardy returns.

Service
Telephone service is still available 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each weekday, Monday through Friday, at all Internal Revenue Service offices located in the Scranton District.

To avoid unnecessary delay, taxpayers should telephone for answers to their tax problems, most of which can be answered, before making personal calls at Revenue offices.

Mr. Graham also announced that Internal Revenue offices located at Scranton, Bethlehem, Wilkes-Barre, and Williamsport will be open all day Saturday, April 14, between 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., to assist taxpayers file returns.

Signal Depot Captain Moved To Germany

TOBYHANNA — A dinner party in honor of Captain Donald Chirafisi, Procurement Officer, who is being reassigned to Frankfurt, Germany, was held recently at the Mayfair Supper Club in Yatesville. The affair was attended by some 100 fellow officers, employees and their wives.

Captain Chirafisi received orders transferring him with the 7771st Signal Procurement Center in Germany, reporting for duty May 10. He is a native of New York City. He is a graduate of Carson Long Military Academy and the University of Alabama where he received his Bachelor of Science degree, majoring in Accounting.

Captain Chirafisi enlisted in the U. S. Navy in 1943, serving in South Atlantic and North Africa as an aerial gunner. On October 20, 1947, he was honorably discharged. He reenlisted in the service as a Second Lieutenant in June, 1950; promoted to a First Lieutenant on December 25, 1950, and to a Captain on April 30, 1954. Mrs. Chirafisi and daughter, Donna Lynn, who are presently residing here will join Captain Chirafisi in June.

Kresgeville Marine Takes Part In Assault On Hawaii

BARKING SANDS, Kauai, T. H., April 13—"Operation Mauka," first full-scale assault by Marines of the 1st Provisional Marine Air-Ground Task Force, was marked with landings on this Hawaiian island from sea and air shortly after dawn this morning.

Participating in the exercise with Company "C" 2nd Motor Transport Battalion was Lieut. Roger W. Rake, of Kresgeville.

Hitting the beach by amphibious craft or helicopter were the 4th Marines, ground component of the Task Force. They met immediate resistance from Marine "enemy" forces, the 1st Amphibious Reconnaissance Co., Fleet Marine Force.

Simulated naval gunfire, close air support and atomic bomb simulators are adding realism, as are sudden changes of situation injected by control groups.

Marine Aircraft Group 13, the Task Force's air arm, is supporting the nearly 8,000 Marines throughout the exercise with close air support, aerial transport of personnel and supplies, and fighting cover.

Mrs. Hoffman President Of Stroud Club

The Stroud Community Club held its final business meeting of the season Thursday at the YMCA, a which time plans were completed for a dinner May 10 at the Fernwood, for all members and their guests.

Rev. Roger C. Stimson, pastor of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church, guest speaker, discussed efforts being made to meet local housing needs in the wake of last year's flood, and gave a resume of the plans and progress to date. Rev. Stimson stated they hope to have available this summer 60 homes, with a sample home for inspection, which will ease the situation considerably for the families without permanent housing.

Special music was presented by the Elementary Choral Group, of the Ramsey School, directed by Miss Alice Bellairs, and accompanied by Miss Carolyn Wilson. The group sang "Old Arks A' Movin'," "Go Tell It On The Mountain," "I Got A Robe," "Thank You, America," and Miss Susan Thurston presented a Hawaiian Dance to the accompaniment of the chorus singing "Hawaiian Serenade."

Mrs. T. D. Hoffman, presiding in the absence of the president, Hazel West, announced the meeting of the County Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at Onawa Lodge April 23. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Foster S. Minnich.

Proceeds from the bake sale for the club charity fund, as reported by the chairman, Mrs. Harold G. Walz, amounted to $66.85.

The new slate of officers for the 1956-57 season was approved: Mrs. T. D. Hoffman, president; Mrs. William J. Howard, first vice president; Mrs. L. J. Morgan, second vice president; Mrs. James A. Gilliland, secretary; Mrs. Frank Talasz, treasurer.

Refreshments were served, with Mrs. W. Douglas Kitson, chairman of the hosts committee, which included Mrs. Arthur Blewitt, Mrs. William Brinker, Mrs. Frank Talasz, Mrs. Frank Meyers, Mrs. Georg Stabenow.

The next board meeting will be held May 2 at the home of Mrs. Budd Van Horn, 122 Maple Ave., East Stroudsburg.

Altar Guild Family Supper On Wednesday

The Altar Guild of St. John's Lutheran Church will hold a covered dish supper for members and their families on April 18 at 6:30 p.m. in the social rooms of the church.

Members are asked to bring table service and a covered dish to pass. Hostesses will furnish the coffee, cream, butter and rolls. Hostesses are Mrs. Mabel Weiss, Miss Carrie Shupp, and Mrs. Burton Mervine.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

A lot of people are glad to see the weekend come, I imagine, but the women of the Zion Reformed Church are probably gladder than anybody. There's satisfaction in having been host to 250 women and had them all leave full of a good dinner and a fine program, but there's a certain amount of strain, too.

And the women of the West End are probably glad to see the pastie season, end, too. 3,000 of the little meat and potato and onion pies are an awful lot and the firehouse probably will be haunted by their appetizing scent for quite a while. Incidentally, I learned that pastie is pronounced, not like "pastry" but like long-ago "past-y."

The excitement is just starting for the local DAR delegates. This is election year and government isn't the only place where politics and campaigns was heated, according to reports.

On the local scene, however, the campaigning for office, if any, is strictly under cover. For the most part, a nominating committee goes around on bonded knee begging prospective officers to accept, and usually ends up in desperation by naming one of their own number to an otherwise unfilled vacancy.

The remarkable thing about it is that they end up with such excellent slates, and the officers, however reluctant they are to begin with, end up doing such a yeoman job.

OFFICIALS for the next two years of the Eastern Pennsylvania Synodical, Ev. and Reformed Church, will include, left to right: Mrs. Jane Leiby, Easton, treas.; Mrs. Charles Shafer, Nazareth, president; Mrs. Guy Benchoff, national Guild president; and Mrs. Fred Quig, Stroudsburg, synodical first vice president. 3,000 Pasties Produced This Year In Fire Hall

Stroudsburg — Thursday ended the pastie bake until next fall at the fire hall in Stroudsburg, where the ladies estimated about 3,000 had been baked in the past three months, as a way of raising money and not just "begging."

The following organizations held bakes: The Ladies Auxiliary of the Blue Ridge Hook and Ladder Co., The Pollyannas, Ladies of the Brick Church, Ladies Aid and Women of various organizations for the Ball Team.

DAR Delegates Off To Convention

Mrs. T. Manning Curtis, regent of Jacob Stroud Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and Mrs. Dale Learn, delegate, will leave on Sunday for Washington, D. C., where they will attend 65th Continental Congress which opens Monday.

Election of officers, a triennial function, has been preceded by active campaigning by the various competing slates, particularly in Pennsylvania. The local delegates are supporting Mrs. Henry Lee of Philadelphia for the Post of President-General.

Mrs. Harold C. Edwards, a past regent of the local chapter, and a former member of the Pennsylvania Executive board, is also attending the convention and is in charge of the regional luncheon.

ITU Auxiliary Sees Cancer Film, Makes Donation

The meeting of the Woman's International Auxiliary 113 to the ITU, was held in the CLU Social Club, East Stroudsburg, on Wednesday, with the president, Mary Meixell, presiding.

Dr. Joseph Viglione, president of the Monroe County Chapter of the American Cancer Society was the principal speaker and gave a talk on the chief forms of cancer in men and women, how to detect them, and the methods used to combat them. A question and answer period followed, and then the film "The Warning Shadow" was shown. Joseph DeRenzi was projectionist.

During the business session, members voted $5 to be given to the Monroe County Chapter of the American Cancer Society and nominations of officers for 1956-57 was held. Those nominated were, president, Mary Meixell; first vice president, Lucille Diehl; second vice president, Sophia Blacker; recording secretary, Verona Michaels; secretary-treasurer, Emma V. Knob; sergeant-at-arms, Mabel Kassner; chaplain, Hilda Kitzman.

One new member was received into membership, Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, of East Stroudsburg. It is planned to have a program on civil defense at the next meeting, when election and installation of officers will also be held. Plans for the annual banquet in June will also be made.

Refreshments were served from tables attractively decorated in the Easter motif, with hand painted egg baskets made by Ellen Verway, sitting in bright cellophane nests. Committee for May was appointed as follows: Lucille Diehl, Verlo Nittel, Sophia Blacker and Ann Laise.

Zion Church Host To 250 Churchwomen

More than 250 people representing the Women's Guilds of the Eastern Pennsylvania Synodical of the Evangelical and Reformed Church filled the Zion Church in Stroudsburg in day-long sessions on Thursday for their biennial meeting.

The women of the host church played a large part in the conference — and the men of the church was also drafted to help with the fellowship served at night. Soloists and choirs of the church provided the music. Mrs. William Foose of Tannersville led the afternoon devotions. Rev. Frank H. Blatt, pastor of the local church, spoke briefly.

Highlight of the meeting was the election of officers with Mrs. Frederick Quig, a member of the local guild and president of the Mountain Regional Guild, being elected first vice president of the Synodical. Mrs. Charles W. K. Shafer of Nazareth was elected president of the Synodical; Mrs. Franklin Brown, Bethlehem, second vice president; and Mrs. J. I. Fatzinger, secretary; Mrs. Jane Leiby, Easton, treasurer.

A thank-offering chart showing the growth of giving over the last 14 years had been prepared by Mrs. Melvin Dunn, Stroudsburg. Numa Snyder, Dr. Frank Teske, president of the East Pennsylvania Synod was a guest.

Keynote address of the conference was given by Mrs. Guy A. Benchoff, president of the national Woman's Guild of the church.

Mills, Mrs. Boyd Titus, Mrs. Ernest Adams, Mrs. Newton Davenport, Miss Margaret Phipps, Mrs. Edward Doney, Mrs. Albert Frantz, Mrs. Charles Hendry, Mrs. Mark Kretzing, Mrs. Clement Heist, Mrs. Claude Rodenbach, Mrs. Myrtle Rodenbach, Miss Anna Schoch, Mrs. Stanley Krieger, Mrs. Thomas Williams, Mrs. Lizzie Fetherman and Mrs. William Kresge.

Get-Together Club At Long Last Gets Together

It took 12 years but the Get-Together Club finally got together again at a party held on Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes, Main St., Stroudsburg. The club which met for many years was disbanded as members became busy with families or jobs. Though individual members often talked about how nice it would be to have a reunion, this is the first time it actually was held in 12 years.

Of the original 22 members, there were 10 present for the party this week, others having moved away or died during the intervening time. Cards and refreshments and a great deal of conversation marked the party.

Present were Mrs. Janet Marsh, Mrs. Marge Snover, Mrs. Frances Heckman, Mrs. Helen Williams, Mrs. Virginia Catlin, Mrs. Janet Brimer, Mrs. Mildred Fritz, Mrs. Edna Palmer, Mrs. Evelyn Walker, Mrs. Clara Catlin, Mrs. Bess Anderson and Muriel and "Hinky" Hughes.

Foreign Languages In The Grades Is PTA Theme

Banger—Thomas Bruni, of Allentown, a representative of the Ford Foundation For Foreign Languages, spoke on Thursday evening to the Roosevelt Parent-Teachers Association on "The Use of Foreign Languages in the Elementary Classrooms." The regular monthly meeting was held at the Roosevelt School Building.

Bruni stated that the ages best for learning a foreign language are between 4 and 11. He also added that the approach to teaching the language in elementary schools was through a conversational manner whereas the approach in high schools was through achieving a knowledge of rules and grammatical structure first. He noted that French, the international language, was the language most commonly found to be taught in the elementary field though Spanish, Polish, German, Portuguese, and Italian languages are also being taught in elementary systems.

In a short business meeting preceding the talk by Bruni, the following officers were elected for the 1956-57 year: Mrs. Dorothy Pozzuto, president; Mrs. Stan Schiavone, vice president; Mrs. Glennis Holland, secretary; and Mrs. Elizabeth Cole, treasurer.

The slate of officers were presented by a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Flora Riccio, Mrs. Margaret Bobst, and Mrs. Jeannette B. Heard.

Presiding at the meeting was Mrs. Pozzuto who announced that a Food Fair would be held in June, the exact date to be announced later. A Pie bake sale was held following the meeting by the First and Fourth Grade Mothers.

Panel Of Principals At PTA Mon.

East Stroudsburg Parent-Teachers Association will hear a panel composed of three school principals at their meeting on Monday night in the Junior High School, at 8. The topic is "Who Sets Our Children's Standards?" and the members of the panel, Ralph Burrows, principal of the senior high school; Theodore Miller, principal of the junior high school; and Ralph Knauf, principal of Clearview elementary school, Stroud Union School District.

A buzz session in which each of those attending will be given an opportunity to discuss the topic in small groups will follow the panel presentation.

The nominating committee presented its slate for the 1956-1957 season at the executive board meeting. Other nominations may be made from the floor at the meeting. The proposed slate includes Mrs. Wendell Wicks, president; Claude Heller, vice president; Mrs. Lawrence Green, secretary; and Mrs. Charles McMahon, treasurer.

Mrs. Clifford Cramer will have charge of the refreshments, assisted by the elementary home room mothers.

Benefit Tonight

Sons and Daughters of Liberty will hold a game party tonight at 8 in Odd Fellows Hall, Stroudsburg.

Easton Uses Late Spurt To Trip East Stroudsburg, 4-1

Three Runs In Sixth Decide Issue

A THREE-RUN outburst in the top of the sixth inning enabled Easton High to defeat East Stroudsburg in the first baseball game of the season at Memorial Stadium by a 4-1 count yesterday.

The Cavaliers were unable to dedicate their newly constructed field with a victory, although the two teams did battle through the first five frames in a 1-1 deadlock.

East Stroudsburg was the first to break into the scoring column when Gene Plaza unloaded a triple to left field and raced home on a single by Dick Gray in the same direction.

Don Mazzie lashed a home run with two outs in the fourth frame to enable the visiting Easton contingent to deadlock the score at 1-1.

Trouble

Curt Hickman, lanky southpaw, was breezing along in winning style before Flynn drew a life on the home standing pitcher's error in the sixth inning after the lead-off batter had been retired.

Hickman gave up a walk to Ackerman, but got Mazzie on strikes. Fritz walked and both runners scored on Benham's double to right, center, on a play that Tom Michaels made a brilliant try. Michaels heaved the ball over the backstop on his throw to the infield and Benham trotted home with the final run.

The victory was the second in as many outings for Easton at this early date.

Plaza led the East Stroudsburg attack with two of the home team's four hits, while Flynn was credited with two of Easton's five safeties. The Cavaliers stranded 13 runners. Charley Lupin pitched the final inning for the Cavaliers.

Dodgers Ink Young Hurler

BROOKLYN, April 13 (AP)—Don Drysdale, 19, a righthander who has made a fine impression in the spring exhibition games, officially became a Dodger today when Brooklyn purchased his contract from its Montreal farm club of the International League.

The Dodgers also optioned four players to their minor league affiliations, sending three to Montreal and one to St. Paul of the American Assn. Veteran outfielder George Shuba, who had been with the Dodgers since 1952, was sent to the Royals along with rookie pitchers Bill Harris and Bob Walz. Outfielder Bert Harner was returned to St. Paul.

Sarazen Blasts Talk Of Venturi

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—The veteran Gene Sarazen, 54, whose vote helped Ken Venturi, 24, get into the recent Masters golf tournament, sharply criticized the San Francisco amateur today for what he called a "crybaby alibi."

"Anyone who shoots 80 in the final round of a golf tournament should be seen and not heard," added the Germantown, N.Y., farmer, winner of the Masters in 1935, "I dropped my plover when I heard what Venturi said."

The young amateur, beaten out for the championship at Augusta, Ga., by Jackie Burke Jr., after blowing a four-stroke final day lead, complained of bad treatment in the tournament after his return home.

Contention

He said he was denied the privilege of playing with his longtime friend and tutor, Byron Nelson, in the final round and that his partner, Sam Snead, gave him the "freeze" treatment.

"Sam hardly said a word to me," said Venturi, who contrasted his last round lonesomeness with the enthusiastic support given by Burke by the latter's playing partner, Mike Souchak.

"It would have been utterly ridiculous for the officials to team Nelson with Venturi on the final day," Sarazen said. "If this had been done and Venturi had come through he would have been the target of the profession."

There has been a sort of unwritten rule at Augusta in recent years that Nelson be bracketed with the leader on the final day. This procedure wasn't followed this year apparently because of Nelson's interest in Venturi's career.

Jackson Wins Over Williams

WASHINGTON, April 13 (AP)—The heavyweight contender Tommy Jackson, 24, of New York, floored England's Johnny Williams three times tonight to win a technical knockout in 2:49 of the fourth round of a television bout at Uline Arena.

Jackson weighed 194, Williams 194½.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., April 13 (AP)—Muhlenberg College announced today that Ernie Fellows has resigned as head track and wrestling coach and assistant football coach.

Illinois Board Debates 'Fix' Rumor

CHICAGO, April 13 (AP)—An attempt by the Illinois State Athletic Commission to pin down a printed rumor of a fight "fix" in Johnny Saxton's dethroning of Carmen Basilio for the world welterweight title March 14 today resolved into a non-decision debate.

The commission, aided by an assistant attorney general, interrogated Jack Begun, veteran Chicago fight manager and promoter, who recently played Saxton's much-debated victory in a Chicago amusement circular.

Begun wrote in his sports column for the March 23-30 edition of "Night Life in Chicago" that:

"If ever a thievery was performed with precision and according to plan that made the Boston Brink's two million dollar robbery look like a 2-year-old, it was the one on the night of the 14th at the Chicago Stadium when Johnny Saxton, then the challenger from New York City, snatched a half million and the title from Carmen Basilio, then welterweight champion of the world from Canastota, N. Y."

Addition

Begun's column also said "it was common gossip" before the fight, Saxton would get the decision if the bout went 15 rounds. He suggested that all persons connected with the fight be subpoenaed to air "this phony decision" and offered to "give you all the help needed."

Begun's article also asserted Saxton's glove had "surgery performed by the blade and on purpose in the minute rest of the third round 'to give the challenger the rest he needed.'"

"If you don't believe it," the article continued, "look at the glove as I did. What a neat job!"

At today's spirited session, Commission Chairman Livingston Osborne and Edward M. White, attorney general's assistant, were unable to extract from Begun any more than an admission his column was strictly "opinion."

Osborne said today's testimony would be sent to the Cook County state's attorney office which could decide if Begun should be subpoenaed for further investigation.

Bosox Slam Phillies, 9-3

DANVILLE, Va., April 13 (AP)—Robin Roberts, who had given up only two home runs in 33 previous innings of exhibition pitching, was slammed for four as well as eight runs today in the Boston Red Sox' 9-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Winning pitcher Bob Porterfield, Ted Williams, Jackie Jensen and Milt Bolling hit the homers off Roberts whose 41 gopher pitches last season established a new major league record.

Cards Down Chisox

OMAHA, Neb., April 13 (AP)—Hal Smith's home run and Rip Repulski's two-run ground-rule double highlighted another come-from-behind victory today as the St. Louis Cardinals ripped the Chicago White Sox for the fifth straight time, 7-5.

Wall Trails Snead By Ten Strokes

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 13 (AP)—Sam Snead, 43, fell off to a 69 today, three shots more than he took yesterday, but he gained four more strokes on the field to lead the $12,500 Greater Greensboro Open golf tournament by 15 shots after 36 holes with a 135 total.

The White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., pro bogied three of the first six holes, but birdied five of the last 12 to finish two under par and lead runnerup Doug Ford of Mahopac, N. Y., by five shots.

Ford, PGA champion, had his second straight 70.

While Snead was not exactly burning up the 6,723-yard, par 71 Starmount Forest Country Club course, primarily because of a pesky putter, his closest rivals at the start of the round were having more troubles.

Fades

Frank Stranahan of Toledo, who was one shot behind after the first round, needed 74 today as his putter ruined him. That dropped him into a three-way tie for third at 141 with John Knight of Los Angeles and Bill Casper of Chuya Vista, Calif.

The day's best round, 66, shot Jimmy Turnesa of Spring Valley, N. Y., into a tie for sixth at 142 with Bill Kerr of Montreal, 69 today, and Dave Douglas of New York, Del., who had 68. Jay Hebert, Sanford, Fla., had a 70 for 143; John Serafini, Fox Hills, Pa., had 74 for 144 and Art Wall Jr., Pocomo Manor, Pa., 75 for 145.

Sixty-one pros who shot 155 or better qualified for tomorrow's third round along with 11 amateurs who did 153 or better, headed by Wayne Jackson of Warwick, Va., a 75 shooter today.

Six Others

Although about 80 per cent of the vote was for a Dodger-Yank Series, six other teams did win first place ballots. Both the Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians had pennant backers and there was one voice raised for the Chicago White Sox. Milwaukee was the only other National League team to command solid support although the New York Giants and St. Louis did get first place votes.

Except for the two pennant winners, the writers did not pay too much attention to the final 1956 standings. Only seven of the other 14 clubs were assigned the same finishing position.

Olympic Trials For Wrestlers To Open Today

WILKES-BARRE — The District Olympic Wrestling Trials will be held at Wilkes College here today and tomorrow with the best amateur grapplers in the area expected to attend in an effort to win berths on the 1956 U. S. Olympic team.

Four states will be represented in the district trials, including grapplers from West Virginia, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and New York.

Trials will be held in both the Free-style and Greco-Roman style, both a part of Olympic competition.

Winners at Wilkes will go to Hollywood Legion Stadium in California later this month to compete in the wrestling finals. The winners at Hollywood will constitute the teams which will represent the U. S. in the Olympics in the fall.

Lock Haven Star

Top entries received include Larry Fornicola, Penn State star who was NCAA champ in 1955 and also most outstanding wrestler in the Wilkes Open, held during Christmas and Leonard De Augustino, a graduate of Lock Haven State Teachers College who wrestled at Helsinki as a member of the 1952 U. S. Olympic team.

With four matmen expected in each weight division, rounds will be held today at 7 p.m. tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. in the evening at 7:30.

Cubs Ship Outfielder

CHICAGO, April 13 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs today sent outfielder-first baseman Bob Speake to their Los Angeles farm club in the Pacific Coast League.

Yankees Show Power With 17-7 Verdict Over Pirates

PITTSBURGH, April 13 (AP)—The New York Yankees bombarded the Pittsburgh Pirates with 17 hits, three of them home runs, to whip the Pirates 17-7 today in the first exhibition game of the season at Forbes Field.

Writers Back Yankees, Dodgers

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—To four of every five baseball writers, it will be another Brooklyn Dodger-New York Yankee Series. The vote of 109 writers who defied the Friday-the-13th hex to "expert" the pennant races was so lopsided it was almost no contest. Nobody picked either team worse than third. The Yanks had 88 firsts and Brooklyn 86.

Before there is a run on the banks to back up this overwhelming show of confidence, it should be pointed out that a similar poll of 110 writers a year ago predicted pennants for Cleveland and Milwaukee.

Stakes Battle At Jam

NEW YORK, April 13 (AP)—Jamaica Race Track comes up with one of the finest stakes battles of the season tomorrow with a dozen sharp performers entered for the $25,000-added Excelsior Handicap.

Nance's Lad, owned by Hilton A. Dabson; C. V. Whitney's Fisherman and the Maine Chance Farm's Jet Action are equally top weighted at 122 pounds, and probably will draw the heaviest backing at the parimutuel windows.

However, the mile and one sixteenth affair has plenty of other red hot threats, including Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Joe Jones, Alfred Vanderbilt's Find, Albert Mesler's War Command and the Wheatley Stable's High Voltage, only filly in the lineup.

Others entered are Sidney M. Barton's Devastation, the High Tide Stable's Fabulist, Brookmeade Stable's First Aid, Green-tree Stable's Illusionist and Edward E. Robbins' Mid-afternoon.

Swaps Draws Top Weight

MIAMI, Fla., April 12 (AP)—Rex Ellsworth's Swaps, assigned high weight of 130 pounds, makes his first start in nearly two months in tomorrow's $25,000 Broward Handicap at Gulfstream Park.

The colt under that weight will be conceding 8 to 25 pounds to his 11 rivals—including eight stakes winners—in the mile and 70 yards race. His stablemate, New Trend, who tied the Gulfstream track record for a mile and a sixteenth in 1:42 recently, was second high in the handicaps with 122 pounds.

Prospect

New Trend may be held out because he likes the mud and the prospect is for a fast track tomorrow.

The speedy California horses, handicaps notwithstanding, were 3-5 favorites in the early odds.

Indians Shade Braves

INDIANAPOLIS, April 13 (AP)—Three runs in the first inning, two of them on Bob Avila's homer, were all the Cleveland Indians needed today for a 3-2 exhibition baseball victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

Avila homered off southpaw Warren Spahn after Gene Woodling led off the inning with a single. Rocky Colavito followed with a double and scored on two flies by Rudy Regalado and Vic Wertz.

Home

Milwaukee's two runs were scored off Art Moutonnan, on one 8 bases-loaded sacrifice fly by Johnny Logan in the third inning and the other on Hank Aaron's homer in the fourth.

Cleveland executed four double plays.

Redlegs Blast Indianapolis

RICHMOND, Ind., April 13 (AP)—Ted Kluszewski hit his second exhibition homer of the season today in the Cincinnati Redlegs' 6-1 victory over Indianapolis of the American Assn.

Big Klu's homer, with one man on base, came in the fifth inning.

Harris, Flory Proclaim 'Israel Independence Week'

BURGESS Hal H. Harris of Stroudsburg and Burgess Jesse R. S. Flory of East Stroudsburg yesterday proclaimed the period from April 13 through April 20 as Israel Independence Week in the two boroughs.

The observance is scheduled in honor of the eighth anniversary of Israel's rebirth.

"WHEREAS the State of Israel is about to celebrate the eighth anniversary of its independence, which it gained in 1948 by the valor of its arms and the authority of the United Nations; and

"WHEREAS it has built a free commonwealth in the Middle East, dedicated to those ideals and values which are the basis of our own American democracy, providing a haven to hundreds of thousands of homeless refugees from destitution and oppression; and

"WHEREAS it has brought water to the thirsty places of the earth, made the desert to bloom, and opened up fresh vistas of hope and prosperity in the desolate wasteland; and

"WHEREAS these great achievements are now in danger of destruction by hostile and backward forces, armed and encouraged by world Communism; and

"WHEREAS succeeding American administrations, irrespective of party and supported by the good will and sympathy of the whole American people, have contributed to the establishment and maintenance of a Jewish state, founded on the ideals and teachings of Zion common to our two peoples;

"THEREFORE, we do hereby proclaim the period from April 13, 1956, through April 20, as Israel Independence Week in honor of the eighth anniversary of Israel's rebirth, and we bid all our citizens, without respect to race or creed, join in its celebration in harmony and brotherhood."

COULD HE RENDER A JUDGMENT WITHOUT
ALL THE FACTS?...

Judges, generally speaking, are competent men but even they must have all the facts to render a sound judgment. And you must have all the facts to make the judgments of life which affect the well-being of your family, your home and your own security.

This is particularly true of insurance. Because insurance is so complicated and takes so many forms, we need to get the facts about it from people who know.

The best possible source of professional advice on insurance is the qualified, independent insurance agent... a man whose life is spent in the study of his field... and who represents many companies with many policies from which to choose the right coverage at the right price.

We are independent, professional agents and our advice is yours... always without obligation... advice that can save you thousands of dollars when misfortune strikes. We will be most happy to furnish you the FACTS as they apply to YOUR insurance safety.

Bangor Plant Distributes Employee Fund

BANGOR—Distribution of $49,748.03 from the Employee's Profit Sharing Trust was distributed on Thursday by the Blue Ridge Textile Co. here to its 304 employees. Announcement of the profit-sharing payment was made by William Winkler, vice president of the firm. The profit-sharing plan was instituted by the firm in 1944 and since that time contributions have been made by the firm and distributions made each year. The contribution of $6,132.67 to the fund this year represented the smallest amount made during the 12-year span. The highest contribution to the fund was made in 1950 when $108,453.69 was contributed.

First Time

Of the 304 persons receiving checks this year, 23 are getting them for the first time. Twenty-one other persons are having the first contribution to the fund made for them this year. Employees
